Explore an alternative path to your Arizona teaching certification with Alliant International University, your teaching certification specialist.

Attend this webinar to learn about Alliant’s online teacher certification programs, the admissions and credentialing process and how Alliant’s School of Education will support you in your intern placement. We will also share information about our new Master of Arts in Education Grant that is equal to the cost of the master’s program!

Why Alliant?
Alliant’s Alternative Pathway to teacher certification programs allow students to teach full-time with an Alternative Teaching Certificate (ATC) while enrolled in teacher certification coursework. An ATC entitles the holder to enter into a teaching contract as the teacher of record while completing the certificate requirements for an Arizona Standard Professional teaching certificate.

The Arizona Certification Program Provides:
- Arizona State Board of Education Standards and InTASC-aligned competencies
- ISTE standards-aligned curriculum
- Support through a consortium of partners including public, charter and non-public schools, related organizations, non-profits, and agencies
- Research and evidence-based learning to meet the needs of learners
- Innovative skills needed to make a global impact
- Online programs, with small class sizes, and classroom simulations to help candidates get the education and experience they need
